Welcome to the Port of Ningbo Handbook & Directory 2010

It is a pleasure to let you know that the Commonwealth Business Media's Seaports Publication Group has been partnered for the production of the Port of Ningbo Handbook & Directory 2010.

The Port of Ningbo and related maritime industries continue to play a key role in the economic development of this port region. The port continues to expand and develop itself to be an international first-class deep-water hub port and one of the major port logistics centers in China.

I hope Port of Ningbo Handbook & Directory 2010 will give you a better understanding of the wide variety of companies and activities that constitute the Port of Ningbo and its vibrant maritime community.

Seaports Publications Group has a strong track record of publishing custom directories, guides, handbooks, magazines and online information. Publisher Ray Venturino will be the project leader, working closely with the writers, designers, advertising sales team and host of others to ensure the quality of this publication.

The 5,000 copies of the handbook and directory will go to Ningbo Port Group for its market promotion and other 2000 copies will be distributed at TPM Long Beach, March 2010 to all the delegates and international senior key decision makers in the industry.

Over the coming weeks and months, Mr Venturino and his team will be working on the contents of this handbook and directory. If you would like your organization listed in one of the business categories free of charge, you can let Mr Venturino know your details.

Ningbo Port gives its full support to the publication of Port of Ningbo Handbook and Directory 2010, and hopes you will do the same.
